Torrance Drubs El Segundo Nine To Tune of 10-3

Hein Pitches Tight Game and Entire Team Serves Up A-1 Ball

The Torrance Merchants baseball team administered a sound drubbing to El Segundo last Sunday. The final score, after Hein had pitched a three-hit game for Torrance, was 10 to 3. The game was played at El Segundo.

Hein's water-tight pitching—feared without allowing the El Segundoites to garner a single safety—was the great work of Weidner behind the bat, and the errorless brand of ball served up by the team throughout were outstanding features.

Box score table showing runs, hits, errors, and at bats for both teams.

Score by innings table showing runs, hits, and errors for each inning.

Summary: Innings pitched—By Hein 9, by Tooley 2. Credit victory to Hein; charge defeat to Tooley. Three-base hit—Glenn. Two-base hits—Weidner, George, Arnold. Sacrifice hits—Wolf, Pataloma. Bases on balls—Off Hein 1 off Tooley 1. Struck out—By Hein 6, by Tooley 3. Stolen base—Hein. Double play—Duczaus to Atwood. Umpire—Wilder.

DISTRICT C. E. NOTES

Just about everyone plans to attend the district wiener roast at Manhattan Beach tomorrow night, July 1.

The district executive board meeting will be held in Central Evangelical Guild Hall Sunday, July 16, at 2:30 p.m.

EASTERN STAR RECEPTION

A number of local Eastern Stars plan to attend the reception at Inglewood tonight for the deputy grand matron of the 49th district, Mrs. Angie Monroe.

Mrs. Lucy Thomas of Dexter, N. M., is a house guest of her sister, Mrs. William S. Bush, of 1731 Plaza del Amo. Mrs. William Carrier and Mrs. Clara Hoeninger and daughter were also weekend guests of Mrs. Bush.

Mrs. Willard Haslam of Arlington avenue returned Saturday from Riverside. The Haslams' car was overturned near Fresno Memorial Day, and Mrs. Haslam has been resting at Riverside since.

WIFE SAVERS

By NELLIE MAXWELL

Wife savers are those who save their wives from the perils of matrimony. They are the men who are so kind to their wives that they never let them get into any real trouble.

When serving spinach some time when the meat dish is rather low in protein, add a cupful of grated or finely cut cheese to the hot cooked spinach; stir and cook until the cheese is well melted, then serve.

Hashed Brown Potatoes—Cut fat salt pork into cubes, fry out and remove the scraps and measure the fat, of which there should be two and one-half tablespoons for each cupful of potatoes, cut into fine cubes. Add the cupful of cold boiled potatoes to the fat and stir these minutes over a hot fire, stirring constantly; then let stand to brown underneath. Fold the same over an omelet and serve garnished with parsley.

When cooking the first choice new peas, shell them and cook the pods in water to steam, drain, and use the liquor to cook the peas. The flavor will be greatly enhanced and the mineral matter and vitamins, which are valuable food substances, also. Add a tablespoonful of sugar to a dish of peas when cooking if they seem to lack sweetness; this is a good method for all most any vegetables, such as corn, carrots, and squash.

SCOUT NEWS

Torrance scouts conducted a successful rally, the last before the summer vacation period, at the elementary school with 80 scouts, 65 parents, and a number of other interested friends present.

The Troop No. 1 team, consisting of Clarence Carpenter, Charles Faulkner, and James Shearer, won the honor of presenting the American flag at the opening and closing ceremonies.

Troop No. 4 won the "parents present" contest, with 24 parents in the audience. Charles Kissinger, Troop No. 4, won the friction fire contest, producing a flame in 24 seconds. James Bagley, Troop 12, won the shot-tying contest with a perfect score in the tying of the nine Tennerfoot knots.

John Young, Troop No. 1, won the oratorical contest, the subject being "Why I Believe in Scouting." The judges were Herbert S. Wood, representing the high school; James S. Scott, representing the American Legion, under whose sponsorship the contest was conducted; and George W. Tolson, secretary of the Boy Scouts of America.

The first aid contest, the 186 event of the rally, was won by the Troop 33 team, Charles Ruppel, Richard Ballinas, and John Jones. On the basis of winning five out of the eight contests, the rally pennant was awarded Troop No. 4.

The announcements included the name of Boyson and Troop 38, Troop No. 4, as the winner of camp contest recently conducted, the reward being a free trip as a member of the district party who leave on July 6 for a three-weeks hike through the Sierra Madre Mountains.

The contest of the best-dressed scout in each troop resulted as follows: Troop No. 1, Clarence Carpenter; Troop No. 3, William James; and Troop No. 4, Kim-noff Clutter. In a final contest between the winners Clarence Carpenter, Troop No. 1, was chosen as the "super-sleek."

The local scout harmonica band made its initial appearance with a program of individual, group, and band numbers. The skit put on by five members of Troop No. 4 was enjoyed as a humorous contribution to the program. Games were played and cake and punch served after the conclusion of the regular program. The judge of the evening was Grant Winston, Wilmington Troop No. 3, assisted by three Eagle scouts, Raymond Abbott and George Portee, San Pedro Troop No. 3, and Ralph Reed, Wilmington Troop No. 3.

TROOP No. 3 The troop as a whole was the guest of Los Angeles Troop No. 38 on Monday, June 27. Troop 38 was putting on a play, "Scouting for Scouting," which was very interesting.

Harwood Clark of Torrance Troop 3 gave an oration, "Why I

TORRANCE NOTES

Cards mailed at Yellowstone from Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodington of ArBacon avenue announce that they are having a wonderful trip. Mr. and Mrs. Woodington are on their way to Canada and plan to be away for at least two months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young and son, of Gramercy avenue, and Miss Ellen Young of Los Angeles leave this week for a month's camping trip to Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hayden of Martin avenue are on a two-weeks' visit with relatives in Fresno.

Paul Vanderhabe is in the Torrance hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Believe in Scouting. From the applause of the large audience Harwood was the star of the program.

Incidentally a Torrance business man was so greatly impressed with Harwood's oration when given at the rally that he presented a $10 gold piece to the troop.

Troop No. 38 and Troop No. 3 have been enjoying entertainments together quite often lately.

Mr. Tolson of Torrance furnished the trucks to take the scouts to Los Angeles.

At the next meeting of Troop 3, Friday, July 1, they are entertaining a Sea Scout crew from Los Angeles, Ship 61.

Visitors are welcome at all meetings of the troop.
